Born, to the wife of Jesse Shannon, a girl.

The health of our town was never better than at the present.

Watermelons are now very cheap and correspondingly diminutive.

C. D. Norris & Co. have Fresh Oysters and Celery. Call and see them.

Our ladies kid button at 2.00, 2.50. 2.75, & 3.00 are bargains. A. J. LOAR & Co.

Mrs. J. W. Sweeny leaves to-day (Thursday) for Kanawha river to visit relatives.

C. D. Norris & Co. will now have Oysters, Fresh Fish and Celery always on hand.

Work has cented on the lock and our merchants and others feel the loos of the monthly pay day;

Go to A. J. Loar & Co. for the largest stock, finest quality and latest styles in clothing & hats.

Louisa was not very numerously represented at the circus in Ashland vesterday. Times are hard indeed when we can't go to a circus.

Dont buy your fall supplies of Boots & Shoes until you extinine bur stock & prices.

A. J. LOAR & Co.

Special Examiner Pierson has brought his family from Washington and take rooms at the Chattaroi for the winter.

A. J. Loar & Cb. Now just opened an elegant line of shirts and mens underweur at astonishingly low prices.

We hear that Wayne K. Thompson, who went from this county to Kansas, is very sick at his Western home.

What would it cost to get a well of inexhaustible gas here? about five thousand dollars, and if our citizens would take the right view of the matter this amount could be raised in thirty minutes. Our merchants, for instance, say they are content if they realize ten per centum on their wares. Five shares of stock, at fifty dollars a share, in a gas well here, in less than thirty days after striking gas would be worth not less than five hundred dollars, and that gas can be obtained right here there is no doubt whatever.
